REVOLUTION IN SAN DOMINGO.

The San Domingo revolution is still in progress, and with a prospect of the complete overthrow of the existing Beaz government. Numerous towns had pronounced for the revolutionists, under Santa Anna, and President Beaz was likely to be driven from the country. Several of the most prominent men had been banished, and others imprisoned by the revolutionists.

On the locality and character of the Dominican government, perhaps all our readers are not posted. San Domingo is the capital of the Dominican Republic, which includes the eastern part of the island of Hayti, in the West Indies. Hayti, formerly called Hispaniola, once belonged to France and Spain jointly. The revolution of 1791 produced an extraordinary change in the condition of the island. The proclamation of the French Assembly, that all men are free and equal, gave rise to a contest between the white and free colored population, during the progress of which the slaves conceived that it applied to them also. They in consequence rose in a body, massacred or drove out the other two classes, and became entire masters of the French possession.

But after this, Boyer in 1822, by a series of vigorous operations, not only extended his sway over all the French part of the island, but annexed to it also that part belonging to Spain, so that the whole is now comprehended in the Republic of Hayti. The government of Hayti is professedly republican; but it has a well described despotism; and it is a military despotism. The chief executive officer is the president, who holds the place for life, and has a salary of $50,000 dollars per annum. There is a senate, the members of which hold their office for life; and a house of representatives, chosen by the parishes for six years.

The revenue of the state is about 1,500,000 dollars; the expenditure is considerably more. The army amounts to 45,000 men, besides which there is a large militia force. The religion of the Haytians is Roman Catholic, but there is little attention paid to the subject, and the state of morals is described as exceedingly bad; other religions are tolerated. Whites are not allowed to hold landed property, or to carry arms.

It is an effort to overthrow this Republic that has again aroused Santa Anna from his private retreat, ever ready to cast his die in any game of chance, he is the undertaking ever so hazardous.

ANOTHER ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS.
The London Times of October 10th has a letter from Naples, which says: On Thursday we had one of the finest eruptions of Vesuvius possible to be seen. Towards seven at night the crater appeared to be all on fire, long flames suddenly arose from it, then the lava gushed forth on a very broad surface, and with very great rapidity, in the direction of the Fosse delle Farnese, and in less than three hours it had run over all the distance that separates the crater from the Atrio del Cavallo, the place where stands the Vesuvius Observatory and the famous hermitage which serves as a refuge for travellers of all countries, for no foreigner comes to Naples without making the ascent of Vesuvius. Thanks to the fine mountain road the government has had made, you can ascend it easily in three hours. All the quays of Naples were thronged with people, admiring this beautiful eruption.

TEMPERANCE ADDRESS.—The next monthly Temperance Address will be delivered by Rev. J. J. Smyth in the Presbyterian Church, on Monday night next, the 11th inst.

THE AGE AND THE TIMES.

We publish, with pleasure, the Prospectus of "The Times," published at Greensboro, for its third volume. Our friends, the Editors, however, will excuse us for saying a line or two, in which it is stated that "The Times" is "the only Southern Literary and Family Journal published in the South."—Our own paper, "The Spirit of the Age," is published in that favorite and favored climate—the South—and lays claim also, to be a "Literary and Family Journal"—and hence we are unwilling to give currency, in its own columns, to an abridgment of these pretensions, by publishing for another journal that which is not so.

The above, as its reading will indicate, is from the "Spirit of the Age," published at Raleigh. The Editor of the Age seems to take umbrage at our claiming to be the only Literary paper, published expressly for the Southern States, and puts forward his "pet" as a Literary contemporary. The Editor will please excuse us for being astonished at his sudden transition from the "Temperance Organ" of the Sons of Temperance of North Carolina, to lay in claims as a "Southern Literary and Family Journal."

Don't the office of Grand Scribe and the patronage of "the order" pay well neighbor? Are you going to verify the prophecies of your enemies, that as soon as the pay ceased you would get your colors and hoist another flag? Westchesterly hope not. The Temperance cause is a good one, and you have done good service as its organ in North Carolina. We, as private individuals, pay for three copies of the Age, besides receiving it as an exchange, because we wish the Temperance cause to have at least one Organ in this State. Therefore don't forsake your old friends.

We base our claims, as the only "Southern Literary and Family Journal," upon this hypothesis. We are patronized by no church, party or order; we appeal to none of these with special claims for support. Our field of operation embraces alike all the Southern States, and by all are patronized; but we are patronized only as a Southern Literary and Family paper. As for Literary articles, we know of no paper, North or South, Political or Religious, that does not contain many very excellent articles of such a character. And among them the "Spirit of the Age" has some excellent Literary contributions, and equally so has the North Carolina Christian Advocate, published in the same office.

Esop tells in one of his fables of a dog crossing a stream with a piece of meat in his mouth. Seeing his own shadow reflected in the water, he supposed it to be another dog, also with a piece of meat. And dogishly grabbing at the supposed meat of his neighbor, lost what he already possessed.

The new Prospectus of the Age we will publish next week, our columns are too full to admit it in this number.

Greene Monument Association.

The Association held a public meeting in the Court House on Thursday night of last week. By special invitation, George C. Mendenhall Esq., delivered an address. Though raised a Quaker, and taught the principle of nonresistance, but to follow peace with all men, yet peculiar circumstances compelled him to sanction the present movement. Greene, like himself, was raised a Quaker, but when the burden of taxation grew grievous, and the liberties of his country were threatened—when it was light or oppression, his patriotism prevailed, and off to the war he would go. The entreaties of his mother proving unavailing, her parting words were "never receive a shot in the back."

At the time of the battle of Guilford, the eldest brother of the speaker was old enough to hear the roar of the cannon. And the spot of ground, now occupied as his garden, the place he was born, and raised, was then whitened with the tents of the British camp previous to the battle. All these associations hallowed the occasion in his memory and won his hearty co-operation in the movement to erect a Monument to the memory of him, whom he regarded second only to Washington.

Mr. Mendenhall was followed by a few remarks from Dr. D. C. Mcbane. We will only give an anecdote. His mother, old enough to recollect the battle distinctly, lived immediately on the road between the two armies. Next day after the battle, an American was seen passing along the road with a white flag, in direction of the British Army. He bore a message from Greene to Cornwallis, the substance of which was Green's compliments to Cornwallis, and an intimation that he would like to meet him again with a result similar to the previous day's battle. Though Cornwallis held the field, he did not see proper to accept the challenge, and in a few days moved off in an opposite direction.

D. F. Caldwell and W. L. Scott Esqrs., also delivered eloquent addresses, dwelling more particularly upon the advantages of an Association similar to the one just organized, and of monuments and memorials to departed worth.

Any person can become a member of this Association by the payment of one dollar; and the money thus accumulated is to be appropriated to the erection of the monument to the memory of Gen. Greene.

THE BLUE RIDGE TUNNEL A FAILURE.
It was announced a few days ago that the "Blue Ridge Tunnel" was completed, and great rejoicing was there in Virginia at the successful termination of this laborious and expensive enterprise. It turns out, by negative experiment, says the Charlottesville Advocate, that "the Tunnel is too small to admit the passage of a single car, much less a full train." Col. Crozet was the Engineer.

GUILFORD EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.

On last Saturday a number of the teachers and friends of Education in Guilford county met in the Hall of the High School, and permanently organized the County Educational Association. We were sorry the time of the meeting had not been more generally noticed, and thereby secured a larger attendance. The good of such meetings depend very much upon the number interested.

For the information of those in Guilford county, desirous of promoting the cause of education; and also for the benefit of other counties desirous of forming similar associations, as auxiliary to the State Association, we have secured a copy of the Constitution adopted on last Saturday, and published with the proceedings.

The next meeting of the Guilford Association will be held in the same Hall as the above, at 10 o'clock, first Saturday in December. Will all the friends of the cause remember the date? It is expected to have quite a demonstration on that occasion, and without further invitation, let every body begin to be in readiness to contribute their quota towards its success. Lend your presence if nothing more. Every little helps these hard times!

Proceedings of the Guilford County Educational Association.

At an adjourned meeting of the Association, held in Greensboro October 31st, 1857, E. W. Ogburn was called to the chair, and J. D. Campbell was appointed Secretary.

The Committee appointed to draft a Constitution reported and after some discussion and amendments, the following Constitution was adopted.

PREAMBLE.

The undersigned, for the purpose of mutual improvement, and in order to endeavor to aid by joint efforts and counsel in the elevation of the Standard of Schoolteaching and to promote the cause of General Education, do hereby form themselves into an Association to be called the Guilford County Educational Association, and to affiliate with the Educational Association of the State, And for their Government as a body they adopt the following CONSTITUTION.

ART. I.
The Officers of this Association shall consist of a President, six Vice Presidents, Recording Secretary, and Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer in one.

ART. II.
The President shall preside at the meetings of the body and shall be governed by Parliamentary rules. In his absence a Vice President shall take his place. The Recording Secretary shall record and preserve the proceedings of the Association in a book kept for that purpose.

It shall be the duty of the Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer to collect, take care of and pay out, under the direction of the Society, its funds—and to conduct its correspondence with other Associations.

ART. III.

All the officers shall be elected by ballot at the regular annual meeting of the Association.

ART. IV.

There shall be one regular meeting of the Association every year—and as many other regular meetings as may be fixed by the By-laws.

ART. V.

The members of the Association shall use all lawful means to promote its success in the objects proposed—and as one means to this end, the Association shall appoint not less than 3 nor more than 7 delegates to attend the Annual meetings of the State Association.

ART. VI.

The Association may adopt By-laws not inconsistent with this Constitution—and all amendments to this Constitution shall be offered in writing at least one regular meeting before acted on.

ART. VII.

Seven members shall constitute a quorum to do business—and the Association may be adjourned from time to time by 3 members.

ART. VIII.

The President and any 3 members may have power to call a meeting; but no part of the Constitution or By-laws shall be altered or added to at a called meeting.

ART. IX.

The Association shall have power to lay a tax on its members, not exceeding 50 cts. per annum, for its necessary expenses.

ART. X.

All meetings of the Association shall be public—and until altered in the By-laws, in the Town of Greensboro.

ART. XI.

All teachers and others interested in the cause of education may become members of the Association—and there shall be no honorary members in the County in which it is located.

On motion, the Association then proceeded to elect officers, to act until the first regular annual meeting, when the following were chosen, E. W. Ogburn President; R. A. Willis, R. Sterling, S. Lander, A. J. Wood, Wm. M. Wiley, and J. W. Freeman Vice Presidents; J. D. Campbell Recording Secretary; and C. C. Cole Corresponding Secretary & Treasurer. It was then moved and carried, that the next meeting of the Association be held on the 1st Saturday in Dec. next, at 10 o'clock.

On motion, a committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs J. D. Campbell, C. H. Wiley and J. W. Freeman, to draft By-laws for the Association and report at our next meeting.

The whole time of the meeting being taken up with the discussions on the constitution and the election of officers, those appointed to read Essays were requested to be in readiness to perform that duty at our next meeting.

On motion the Association adjourned.

IMPORTANT TO POSTMASTERS.—The Postmaster General orders that all post-offices whose compensation does not exceed twelve dollars and a half per quarter can procure time, wrapping paper and sealing wax, at Government expense, provided the charge does not exceed $20 per annum.

NEWS EXCERPTS.

MEETING OF MAIL CONTRACTORS.—We learn from an advertisement, that on the 17th day of this month there will be a meeting in this place of all the Contractors in the State, who convey mails by any other mode than that of Steamboat or Railroad—the object being to memorialize Congress to allow additional compensation on account of the unprecedented scarcity and consequent high prices of provisions for the last year.

WHERE IS HE?—Wm. P. Fowler, coachmaker, formerly of Warrenton, N. C., and latterly supposed to be a resident of Chicago, is informed that both his parents are seriously ill, one of them but small hopes of recovery. His relations and friends earnestly request that he will write as soon as possible.

STILL THEY COME.—Another batch of Coolies have been landed at Havana, nearly one-fourth of the cargo dying on the passage. Thus the slave trade flourishes in disguise, under the patronage of Exeter Hall.

THE CHOLERA.—The cholera now extends over nearly the whole northern continent of Europe. At Gluckstadt, four per cent. of the population have died, and at Upsal the University has been closed until the 12th of October, on account of the epidemic.

EARTHQUAKE.—St. Louis recently experienced several shocks of a recently quaking Missouri. Hotels and several houses in the vicinity, rocked like a cradle, plaster fell from the ceilings, doors were unlocked and thrown open, and beds and furniture displaced.

THE CHIEF CONGRESS. now in session in New York, continues to excite very general interest. The papers say that a grand consultation match will shortly come off between the Northern and Southern players. The following gentlemen will represent each section, and the affair will cause much interest and excitement, as the various champions are picked men. North—Col. Mead, New York; P. P. Montgomery, Esq., Philadelphia; Louis Paulsen, Esq., Iowa. South—Hon. A. B. Meek, Alabama; Paul Murphy, Esq., New Orleans; Dr. Raphael, Kentucky. Before the Congress adjourns, Mr. Paulsen will play five games blindfold simultaneously.

DR. MITCHELL'S LIBRARY.—The Chapel Hill Gazette, learns that the Administrator of the Estate of the late Dr. Mitchell, has offered this extensive Library to the Trustees of the University for the sum of five thousand dollars. Gov. Swain, the President of the Institution, we are also informed, has recommended the purchase of the Library to the Trustees at that price.

This Library doubtless cost three times that sum, and certainly is very cheap, as it contains many valuable books that are out of print, and can be had nowhere else.

FIRE AT CHAPEL HILL.—About 4 o'clock on Monday morning last, the residence of Dr. A. D. Moore, near the College campus, was discovered on fire. The building was old and dry and no exertions could save it. It was occupied principally by students of the University, several of whom lost their clothing, trunks, one his gold watch, which was found in the rubbish, doubtless ruined.

Dr. Moore's family were not occupying the house at the time, but we learn that a large amount of clothing, bedding, medicine, surgical instruments, &c., were destroyed for him. We have not heard an estimate of his loss, but presume it is heavy. The Gazette says the fire is presumed to have been the result of carelessness.

OXFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.—We call especial attention to the advertisement of Oxford Female College, in another column. This school is destined to take a high stand among the Female schools of our State, and we wish it the success it so eminently deserves.

THE FAILURE OF THE POTATO CROP IN ENGLAND.—The London Star of Oct. 6th says that the anticipations which had up to that time prevailed of a plentiful crop of potatoes in that country had been suddenly dispelled. Hundreds of acres will not pay for the digging, as the potatoes, although looking very well when first taken out of the ground, in 24 hours are unfit for use. Unfortunately this sudden manifestation of the disease is not confined to any particular district, but seems very general. This is very sad intelligence for the poor, as it will practically put this valuable esculent beyond their reach.

DEATH OF SECRETARY OF STATE.—William Hill Esq., Secretary of the State of North Carolina, died in Raleigh, on the 29th October. The Standard says Mr. Hill was in his 85th year, and had held the office of Secretary of State for 40 years, being first elected in 1811. For many years past, no matter what party was in power, he was again and again unanimously re-elected by the Legislature. This is a high tribute to the faithful officer and honest man, and as rare as it is exalted. It is seldom indeed that party rancor and party partiality is so effectually dispensed and brought to bow willingly to the demands of merit.

He died not of disease. The machinery of life ran down—the vital principle was gradually exhausted, and he breathed his last without a struggle—without a movement of a muscle.

GREAT RAILROAD FAILURE.—The Illinois Central Railroad has failed, and made an assignment. This is the greatest among the great failures of the passing day.

ENGLAND BEATES ON HER OWN TRACK.

It was announced by telegraph, that at the Newmarket races in England the Carriage stakes, worth £20,000, were won in gallant style by the American mare Prior over thirty competitors. Very heavy bets had been made against her previous to the day of contest.

MISSISSIPPI.—The election in Mississippi has resulted in the success of an entire Democratic delegation to Congress, as follows: First district, L. Q. C. Lamar; Second, Reuben Davis; Third, William Barksdale; Fourth, O. R. Singleton; Fifth, J. A. Quitman.

MINISTERS MARRYING DIVORCED WOMEN.—Rev. Mr. Shields, of Iowa, having been silenced by the Presbytery of Des Moines for marrying a woman who had been divorced by the laws of Iowa, appealed to the Synod and his appeal was sustained. The Synod expresses its opinion that the action of the Presbytery was carried in form, and suggested by a laudable zeal in the service of the church; and although sustaining Mr. Shields, does not approve of his marriage, as is shown by the following resolution:

Resolved, That in restoring Rev. J. H. Shields to his former position in the gospel ministry, the Synod should not be understood as approving the contracting of marriage, especially by ministers of the gospel, with persons divorced for whatever cause, believing that such marriages impair usefulness, influence and standing, and bring into question the purity and wisdom of the parties thereto.

LAW ON FIRE WOOD.—The following we clip from the Standard, is a law of the State and is invariably violated in this place, through ignorance we presume, but we hope it will be observed hereafter. It is much the fairest and most honorable way to sell wood by the cord, and we hope that system will be adopted here at once.

All firewood sold in incorporated towns shall be sold by the cord, and not otherwise. And each cord shall contain eight feet in length, four feet in height, and four feet in breadth; and shall be corded by the seller under penalty of two dollars for each offence, to the use of the informer. [See Revised Code, chapter 60, section 72.]

MORMON RESISTANCE.—The Republican publishes a speech of Elder Kimball, at Utah, expressing his determination to resist the Government troops, if he has even to call out the women and children to arms. He declared that he would have Brigham Young for Governor all his life time.

ANOTHER USE FOR CHINESE SUGAR CANE.—We see that wrapping paper of good quality, has been made from the Chinese sugar cane. An exchange says the "Boston Journal" has seen a fine specimen of wrapping paper made from the Chinese sugar cane. It says, the specimen proves conclusively that paper can be made from that plant.

REVIEWS.

THE RHETORICAL MANUAL, or fifth reader, embracing copious and elegant extracts, both in prose and poetry. With a treatise on Rhetorical figures and the principles of Elocution.

We are indebted to the publishers, J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, for a copy of the above work. It is one of the series of Southern Readers prepared by Mr. Ross, Esq., superintendent of public Schools of Louisiana, and is gotten up in a most excellent style. We have also received from the same Publisher,

THE SOUTHERN SPEAKER, or sixth reader, containing, in great variety, the masterpieces of oratory in prose, poetry and dialogue. With an appendix, embracing known model debate; the Declaration of Independence; Constitution of the United States, with marginal index; Washington's Farewell address, with running index and marginal questions.

These works each contain over five hundred and fifty pages, and the extracts are the finest in the English language. They are entitled to a place in every Southern school, where Rhetoric or Elocution is taught, and besides models of language and style, they contain an immense store of useful knowledge. Even so reference books and for family reading, these would make useful volumes for the library. We hope Mr. Ross will meet with abundant success as he most justly deserves, in this undertaking.

FROM HAVANA.—Letters to the 24th announce numerous failures of large houses. The Spanish war steamer Neptune had captured a slave with five hundred and forty negroes on board and carried her into Havana.

Signers had declined considerably and trade generally was stagnant. Exchange on the United States was immovable.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Gov. Bragg, has appointed and set apart Thursday, the 26th day of November next, as a day of solemn and public thanksgiving to Almighty God for past blessings, and of supplication for his continued kindness and care over us as a State and a Nation.

DEATH OF THE SCULPTOR CRAWFORD.

The steamer Baltic brings the sad tidings of Mr. Crawford's death. He died in London on the 10th Sept, leaving a worldwide and an honored name as a legacy to his children. He retained his consciousness to the last and bore his sufferings, with true Christian fortitude. Mr. Crawford was we believe a Virginian by birth; he remains should be brought over the ocean and laid beneath the soil of his native State.

MOORE COUNTY FAIR.—John W. Cameron, Esq., editor of the Fayetteville Argus will deliver the annual address before the Moore County Agricultural Society which meets in Carthage on the 12th and 13th of November.

THE UTAH EXPEDITION.—A letter has been received at the War Department stating that the 5th and 10th regiments of infantry and Phillips' battery left Fort Laramie on the 9th of September on their way to Utah. Lieut. Alexander, commanding the 10th regiment says that the march across the prairie country from Fort Leavenworth to Platte river was within the time allowed by Gen. Harney's orders and was, perhaps, the most exempt from loss and accident ever known. No serious sickness has prevailed, though four cases of bilious fever, produced by the great alterations of temperature and miasma of the Platte bottom have occurred. He confidently expresses the belief that unless some very unforeseen accident occurs, his regiment will reach Utah in a condition of perfect efficiency and discipline.

MARRIED.

In Rockbridge county, Va., on Tuesday 13th, October, by Rev. Dr. White, Mr. JAMES S. MEHAR of Arkansas, formerly of Greensboro, N. C., to Miss HENRIETTA E. CAMPBELL, of Rockbridge, Va.

At the "Institute," on the morning of the 21st ult., by Miss N. Z. Graves, Mr. JULIUS WILCOX, to Miss MATTIE J. HOLTON, N. C. of the Warrenton Female Collegiate Institute.

DIED.

In Newberry District South Carolina, on Monday 26th October, THOMAS F. COLE, of Stokes County North Carolina age about 28 years. The deceased was sick only seven or eight days, was delirious from Saturday morning, and died among strangers. His remains were brought back to Stokesburg, Stokes County, N. C., and were buried by the order of Old Followers.

The Editor of this paper, together with a large family of brothers and Sisters, mourn the untimely death of one who was a most dutiful child, an affectionate brother and a worthy and exemplary man. The hallowed recollections of former days are not dimmed by the recollection of one angry word, or one unbrotherly act; and we now mourn for him who is the first to break the family circle and join our long (e. a. t. d.) ones.

In this place on Wednesday night, 26th October, WILLIAM ELLIOTT, aged 66 years. He was a member of long standing in the M. E. Church, and died in Christian triumph.

In Fairfax, N. C., on Wednesday, 28th, October, Mrs. E. R. UNDERHILL, wife of W. H. Underhill, aged 33 years. She was a consistent member of the Methodist E. Church.

Editor's Certificate.—A cure by Oxygenated Bitters. BURLINGTON, VT., Nov. 12, 1854.

Gentlemen,—I suffered for about a year previous to last spring, from a derangement of the action of the heart, which like most others similarly afflicted, I supposed to be an organic disease, and having seen the Oxygenated Bitters highly recommended for use in such cases I procured and used a single bottle, with entire success. The disagreeable symptoms speedily disappeared, and I have never had any recurrence of them. Being really of opinion that this medicine is of unquestionable value as a cure for Dyspepsia, (in which opinion I am happy to know that I agree with many intelligent physicians,) I have no hesitation in permitting this certificate to be used in any way that will promote its more general use.
